

Guidelines for abstract submission

- Please submit your abstract via the Internet. Abstracts submitted via fax, e-mail, post, or other methods will not be accepted.
- The conference languages are German and English.
- Abstract changes and corrections will be accepted until the 13th January 2017.
- For the presenting authors, registration and participation at this conference are binding.

Abstract content and format

- Abstracts should be written in English or German.
- The language of the abstract should be the same as that of the presentation.
- Abstract titles should be concise and direct.
- Please formulate clearly and concisely the goal, the methods used, and the conclusion of each abstract.
- The abstracts (without title and authors) should have a maximum of 2500 characters.
- Figures cannot be included.
- Avoid using non-standard abbreviations.
- Do not use the title or the names of the authors in the body of the abstract.

Help

- Help for abstract submission is provided in each section of the abstract mask.
- A help guideline for our entire system is available as a PDF document. Please click on Help in the main menu.